

Inaugural Recital

On Memorial Organ

In Madison Church

4/24/30
P. 1.

Leon P. Beckwith, Organist,
Assisted By Marion
May, Contralto

"MUSIC HATH CHARMS"

The Thomas G. Shepard memorial organ, recently installed in the First Congregational Church of Madison, will be played by the organist, Leon P. Beckwith of Guilford, in a recital of music by the world's great composers, on Thursday evening, May 1, at 8:30, daylight saving time.

Marion May of Madison and New York, contralto soloist, will be heard in song groups.

The church will be thronged, it is safe to predict, as this musical feast will be appreciated by people from near and far.

The program follows:

I.

Hosannah! (Chorus Magnus) Dubeis
Liebestod—"Tristan and Isolde" ..... Wagner
Gavotte—"Mignon" ..... Thomas
Piece Heroique (In Memoriam) Franck

II.

I Love My God—Old English.. Bullock
The Knight of Bethlehem—Old English
..... Thomson
People Victorious—"Hora Novissima"
..... Parker

Marion May

III.

Grand March—"Aida" ..... Verdi
Largo—New World Symphony.. Dvorak
Toccata in G minor ..... Becker

IV.

May-Day Carol ..... Deems Taylor
April, My April ..... Milligan
Loveliest of Trees ..... Peel
The Time for Making Songs..... Rogers
Marion May

V.

Spring Song ..... Hollins
Harmonies of Evening ... Karg-Elert
Folk Song ..... Lemare
Finlandia ..... Sibellus